325 West Adams Street,
Los Angeles.

My dear Mr. Muir -
We are much
troubled to have the news from you of your being called home by Mrs.
Muir's illness and we hope to hear that she is doing well and is on the road to recovery -
I am very glad that

My uncle took you
to his house and made things comfortable for you. I knew he would do all he could - His wife and daughter started to the ranch for a visit a few days ago - just too late to see you - Hope Miss Helen's living is much better for the mountain air

Since she started south.
My Mother and Father
join me in sending warm regards to you -
Faithfully yours,
Darius Hooker.
