A MAGAZINE OF

THE OLD PACIFIC AND THE NEW

EDITED BY CHAS. F. LUMMIS

A magazine wholly unlike any other published anywhere. . . . The best there is in periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. . . . Ability and individuality powerful enough and original enough to give distinction to any periodical. . . . A voice listened to with respect and interest in all parts of the country."
—The Dial.

"Its lively independence and its genuine learning. . . . A steady evenness of worth and interest."

Dear Muir:

We are greatly distressed to learn of the sickness of your wife, and sincerely trust that she may promptly and fully recover. May be a little later you will take her down to share the benefits of the desert treatment, and I hope that this may be as good for her as for Helen. Let us know, now and then, how things come on, for we shall be very anxious.

I hope you will be able to use the letters still this season, and that you may all have an outing which will do not only present, but lasting good. If you come back this way be sure to stop over---for after the good time we had with you I cannot allow you to go past without at least a little visit.

With love from all of us,

Always

Your Friend,
