My dear Mr. Muir:

We have learned with great sorrow of Mrs. Muir's death.

I was on the point of going over today, but finally decided that it would be better not to intrude at this time.

Mrs. Muir and the children have been down for a few days but have now gone back to Camp Muir, where I expect to join them tomorrow or next day.

Shall you go right back to Arizona? I suppose Helen is there still, and trust she is regaining health + strength rapidly. Wanda must have had a severe strain.

Give them both our best love. Yrs as ever
