

1905-08-09

Letter from Melville B. Anderson to [John Muir], 1905 Aug 9.

Melville B. Anderson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Anderson, Melville B., "Letter from Melville B. Anderson to [John Muir], 1905 Aug 9." (1905). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3392.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3392>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Menlo Park,
Wednesday, 9 August, 1905.

My dear Friend:

Mrs. Anderson
and I were much touched
this morning by the sad news
of the death of Mrs. Mink, conveyed by a letter from Miss Safford. But we feel, as I trust you and your daughters are able to feel,
that it is a blessed release
for the sufferer. I need not assure you of my sympathy; you have been often in my thoughts of late. I wish you would 03607

assume poor Wanda of the heartfelt sympathy of both of us.

Robert here is on his way,
I suppose, to Italy, expecting to arrive at Genoa on the 31st inst. I shall send him Miss Safford's letter, which, I knew, will make him very sad.

How hard it must be for Helen to be left alone in the Desert at such a time!
I should like to have her know of our remembrance & sympathy. I wish I were your neighbor so that I might, if possible, do you

^{from} ^{proposed} 11/10
kind offices. I should be glad to have you see me in any way.

Yours most sincerely,

Melville D. Anderson

P.S. Fliegel is in Germany; he will be
sincerely glad to hear of your affliction; I shall write him today.
M.D.A.

Mrs. John Lewis -

Menlo Park,
9 August, 1905.

My dear Friend:

Mrs. Anderson and I were much touched this morning by the sadness of the death of Mrs. Muir, conveyed by a letter from Miss Safford. But we feel, as I trust you and your daughters are able to feel, that it is a blessed release for the sufferer. I need not assure you of my sympathy, you have been often in my thoughts of late. I wish you would assure poor Wanda of the heartfelt sympathy of both of us.

Robert is on his way, I suppose, to Italy, expecting to arrive at Genoa on the 31st inst. I shall send him Miss Safford's letter, which, I know, will make him very sad.

How hard it must be for Helen to be left alone in the desert at such a time! I should like to have her know of our remembrance and sympathy. I wish I were your neighbor so that I might, if possible, do you some kind offices. I should be glad and proud to have you use me in any way.

Yours most sincerely,

Melville B. Anderson

P. S. Flügel is in Germany; he will be sincerely grieved to hear of your affliction. I shall write him to-day.

03607