Dear Mr. ...
 We are all greatly distressed by a report that you are sick, & that Helen is also. This is sent rather at a venture - I hope it reaches you. Have Wanda let me know exactly how things stand. Can we do anything? If I could help, I would ask leave of absence & turn over to you. Would do so if I could how, were it not for the conditions here in the library;

 but if I can serve you, I shall
 it at any hazard.
 God be with you.

Dear Muir:

We are all greatly distressed by a report that you are sick, and that Helen is also. This is sent rather at a venture -- I hope it reaches you. Have Wanda let me know exactly how things stand. Can we do anything? If I could help, I would ask leave of absence and run over to you. Would do so anyhow were it not for the conditions here in the Library, but if I can serve you, I'll do it at any hazard.

God be with you.

Your friend,

Chas. F. Lummis
