am thankful.

Please write as soon
as this reaches you, Give my love to Loui
and Grandpa and Helen.
I hope the girls will write to us as soon as they have time. I am always glad to see their letters to our girls.

With much love
Joanna M. Brown

Port. Norfolk Va.

Dear brother John:

Margaret wrote
me, two weeks, or more ago, that Loui was very seriously ill, and how you and the girls had been called home from Arizona.

Since then we have heard nothing, but as no news is usually interpreted to mean
good news, we are greatly hoping that the worst symptoms are past and that she is now recovering.

I do hope that you will write and relieve my mind, and tell us how you are yourself and how your Sweet Helen is; How I hope and pray that she and your wife may soon be restored to their usual good health.

The weather here has been excessively hot the past week but there is usually a good breeze
from the water to help us bear it, I am able to get out onto the Hammock where I lie most of the day,
so that I get my full share of Gods glorious fresh air, with bird music and beauty
all about, and I
