must leave. We are trying to find some place for her with one or two enginal souls where she will be contented and get-well. I am sure you girls would like her and she them. As you are so very busy perhaps Nanda or Helen would write me

I am Aug 31 st.

My dear Mr. Min:
Marian
has just written me of her visit with you and said she wished I had been there and I must say she faintly wishes when compared to mine.

I have thought so often of you in your room and anxiety and wish in some small way I might lighten it. If I could do anything for you and your girls I should love to do it.

I think the Kameah days were the very happiest days of my life, full of the joy of living and being.

The glory of it - all of ten goes through me like a great wave and I live through it again and again.

We have a very great friend, a most charming girl. She has taught in the schools for some years but her health and about the place they are in. She must sleep in a tent and live the life Kelen lives.

It seems awful at times, to think we are not given the strength to do our part.

It may seem too far to send her but we are anxious to have <sup>[63]</sup> as many things to choose from as possible.

Please give the girls my love and do try and stop off here as you dray back to Arizona.

Sincerely yours

Ellie Maguire
