

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1906-02-27

Letter from John Muir to [Helen & Wanda Muir], 1906 Feb 27.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Helen & Wanda Muir], 1906 Feb 27." (1906). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3489.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3489>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Mary's Feb. 27/06

Darlings I hope you have come through your first sand storm unscathed. I don't wonder you had storms of some kind, for on the way home I encountered almost every sort of weather - wind, snow, rain & even sunshine heat & cold etc. Your letter came yesterday & I'll be uneasy until I hear that Helen is not seriously hurt by the close air of the bedroom, made so to keep out sand.

I sent a gold berry box soon as I got home & yesterday a box of oranges the best I could find after strict orders to taste every tree for the sweetest. Don't bother about the Baumgart deed only watch chance when Clark is down. Let me know what you want me to bring ere long for I may return in haste should I hear of more sand winds. All here about as usual. The fruit trees in full bloom & grass 6 inches high. Ever your loving
Mary