

1906-11-09

Letter from Paul Griswold Huston to John Muir, 1906 Nov 9.

Paul Huston

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Huston, Paul, "Letter from Paul Griswold Huston to John Muir, 1906 Nov 9." (1906). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3582.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3582>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

on the Yellowstone, but it does try to tell of what wilderness there is still left in little nooks occasionally in Ohio. Your own studies are mentioned in connection with my paper upon "The Woods".

If at your leisure you care to let the author of "Around an Old Homestead" know what you think of his book, I can say with considerable authority - that he will be greatly delighted.

In the meantime, he will introduce himself, will tell you how thoroughly he has enjoyed your Western books, and will hope to see further inspirations from your pen in the "Century" and "Atlantic".

Sincerely yours,

Paul Griswold Huston.

97 Elm Street,
Oberlin, Ohio,
November 9, 1906.

John Muir,
Martinez, Cal.

Dear Sir:

As one who also loves wild places and the forests, I am sending you along with this a copy of a recent collection of outdoor papers, "Around an Old Homestead", by myself.

It does not have to do with the Yosemite 03773