My dear Mr Keeler

I'm very glad to hear from you. Though sorry Mrs Keeler's health is still so frail we all fondly hope rest in the open air will soon renew her strength.

How busy you have been with your farm these days, while I have not written a word - days, weeks & months consumed in petty cares tinkering the old house - healing earthquake wounds etc. But at last roofs have been made whole, new fires lighted & we want you to come & see us, come as soon as you can. Give my kindest regards to Mrs Keeler & all the family & believe me ever faithfully yours
