happily I wish Helen might be well again
and able to go home.

Please do not pass
through again without seeing me. This is at the school which is about one mile and a half out on Adams Street.
If I do not write

you again this year I hope next year will be a happy one if we are any in another - some-
may. Saw Mr. Keller for a minute a week ago.

Affectionately yours,
Ellie Rogers

LOS ANGELES

Dear Mr. Miner: My very firm resolve was to write the minute
following the reading
of your inquiry but I have allowed the demands of this school
to take the place
of all such resolves.
Perhaps you have forgotten that a friend and I opened a fall.

We have been most successful as schools usually go the first year. We have twenty-five children enrolled. I teach in the Primary and Grammar Department and thirteen in mine.

Have I written you since I saw Mr. John Van Dyke. He was very charming he traveled with us on his way through to his brother's ranch in Dygett.

Mr. Hooker is home again but Mrs. Hooker still lingers in the East. Minnie is at College and there.

Mr. Hooker was in the East for three months and was ill most of the time while there.

I am sorry your house has to be
