Dickey to Marian, yes, he is now Marian's champion (so he says) By my claiming the "ma-maship" of Mr. Keith.
I lost all claim in that direction.

I do wish I could have been with Helen and Marian when they went to see you in Martinez but I must stay home and work. I know I enjoy

My dear Mr. Min: - It is not lack of appreciation that has kept me from answering your beautiful long letter.

I have been over the map many times and I see us in my mind's eye, traiking up those wonderful mountains and through the cañons.

He had not planned to join the Sierra Club party next-year but may do so when the time comes.

Will you be there? I suppose with all your work you can never tell what a year will bring forth.

Poor Mr. Gannett self-exiled on dull census business, dull to you. He is such a kindly man. We have had so many different-looks sent us through him.

I missed Dr. Merriam as he passed through I was not at home when he called I am still lamenting. I heard he was ill. I hope nothing serious.

Judge Hittell has transferred all his affections from Mrs.

play the more for the work I do.

I found an article on the King's River Cañon in a back number of the Harper's I enjoyed it immensely. I always ^{more} enjoy reading about things after I have seen them. All that is in your books seems so vivid to me now.

The expect- Maria back the end of this week she has been gone over two months and I have missed her very much.

I hope you will forgive me for not-writing but- I did not want to bore you and you must realize how much I value yours.

Believe me very sincerely yours
