you just ought to see my tent now. I have a good brain, you know I always was "smart": so I took it into my head to make perfectly good hooks on which to hang hat, towels, clothes etc, with big softy prings, turning them upside down and hanging on the catch part - savvy? And I have everything so handy and fine with lots of rubber blankets when it rains.

Today has been "pretty hotum", and I have enjoyed the sun and feel simply great. I am getting fat, and go about with no thoughts of lungs till I come to with a start of surprise to think I havent felt them for so long. Dont that "nice"?

Good-by and cheer up old Sierra, for the sunset is lovely and I must get out.

Love to you all, as always

Sincerely yours

Stevenson
