325 W. ADAMS STREET

LOS ANGELES

My dear Mr. Minn:

It was so nice to have your New Year greetings. I have intended sending you these pictures of our garden with me in them and will not delay longer.

Do come and see us and the garden soon it is really quite attractive and

03810

we, as you know, are very much so.

Our Sierra Madros are covered with snow and it is very cold. We are sleeping out of doors and last night almost drove us in.

I hope Helen is very well, please remember
me to her and your daughter Wanda whose

new name I have forgotten.

We all wish you a happy New Year and I do hope you will write a great deal, in spite of its making you so tired.

I have learned to type write so come down and I'll do it for you.

Affectionately yours
Jan. 1, 1907
