120 BROADWAY
NEWYORK

February 20, 1907.

Dear Mr. Muir:

Your note of December 29th reached me soon after I was laid up, and I have only just returned to business. I appreciate your good wishes, and hope we will meet again ere long.

The Colorado River broke out again, but we closed it on the 11th inst., for good, I hope.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Currier

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez,
California.
