My dear Muir:

I have been so extremely busy since the receipt of your letter of the 15th of December that I have not been able to observe the proprieties of friendship. I have not failed, however, to urge upon the Speaker and upon the Appropriations Committees of both houses the desirability of giving $100,000 to the Yosemite. The Sundry Civil Bill containing the item has been passed, but I do not know whether the appropriation has been cut down or not. I am trying to find out from Senator Perkins.

The only landscape gardener I know of is Samuel Parsons, Jr., whom you know. I suppose young Olmsted does that sort of work.

James is here and wishes to see me in regard to the Coolbrith matter. I have subscribed to that fund and sent my book of poems to be sold and have too many other important things in hand to give any time to him; but I have agreed to see him. How I wish I could see you again!

Faithfully yours,

R. U. Johnson

Mr. John Muir.
