are not convenient for you,
a date early next September.
(The first half of May is taken up by the annual would be given in Hearst Hall, and in the evening.

Hoping that we may have the pleasure of hearing you speak before us, I remain,

Faithfully yours,

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Berkeley, Cal.

March 24, 1907.

My dear Mr. Muir,

The members of our Chapter of Phi Beta

April 4, at seven o'clock.

Executive Committee hopes that it may be your pleasure to act as our orator this year. The subject, of course, would be of your own choosing. The date of the address may also be left to you. Our regular time has been on the afternoon before Commencement; but on that day the audiences have not been large, since many students and other residents have left Berkeley, and those remaining are busy with many private interests. If you consent to give the address, we suggest as a date April 26 (Friday), or April 29

(Monday); or, if these times
