

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1907-03-27

Letter from John Muir to [Annie K.] Bidwell, 1907 Mar 27.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [Annie K.] Bidwell, 1907 Mar 27." (1907). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3674.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3674>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Bidwell Papers
Bancroft Library

Martinez, March 27/07

Dear Mrs Bidwell

Your charming invitation to visit you is one after my own heart & you may be sure one or both of us will make haste to Chico as soon as we can. But alas the old freedom to roam is mine no longer. & even so short a trip as the Rancho Chico one may have to indefinitely postpone.

Helen & I are all the family now though Wanda is not far off. She & her husband are living in a home of their own.

I'm delighted to get tidings of you & your sister & Mrs Gray & Sir Joseph for I like all that blessed company so lovingly a part of dear and lang syne.

Helen has got through the winter very well, much to my relief. I hope she will soon be as sound & strong as ever. Come & visit us at any time Our home is within a few miles of your way to San Francisco.

When I was last at Ken I failed to see Sir Joseph but had a pleasant call at his daughters home. She told me her father was at a Sanatorium but hoped to be back home & at work in a few weeks. Your news of him is the latest. How precious the glowing warmth & beauty of these old memories never to fade. Faithfully Your friend
John Muir