My dear Muir:

Looking over some old letters of mine I came across a note of yours of January 22d, 1905, saying that you would tell me about the Harriman matter. I cannot remember that you did so. I should like to know the inside history of that affair.

Faithfully yours,

R. U. Johnson.

Mr. John Muir.

I am embarked on my plan of obtaining coordinate action of the Eastern States with a view to the resumption of the upper reaches of the ~~future~~ Appalachian range.
