Aug. 14, 1907.

Mr. John Muir.
Martinez, Cal.

My dear Mr. Muir:

I was much disappointed in not seeing you again after our arrival at the Meadows, as I had a number of things I wanted to talk over with you. Will it be convenient for you if I call at Martinez some time before my return? I shall be at Hotel Carlton, Berkeley, several days next week & shall be glad to receive word from you there.

I am planning a 3 weeks' trip to the Kings and Kern Canyons, starting about Aug. 22.

Yours very respectfully,
Herbert H. Grason.
