Dear Mr Muir.

The reading of the enclosed slip, cut from a local paper brought you to my mind. It will show you how Dunbar stands at the present day.

The only news that I have is that Willie Douglas is going to take unto himself a wife, and that on the 21st Jany. next. I do not know the lady, and all I know so far is her name, Phyllis Proctor, that she lives in New castle, and that I have agreed to act as best man at the wedding.

Excuse my first attempts on a typewriter, and with kindest regards to you and Miss Muir
Yrs. truly.

J. Rennie
