My Dear Mr. Muir:—

I enclose a few more letters from different members of our Hetch-Hetchy staff. I hope the work is going on at your end. I expect to have a few more exhibits ready for you in a few days.

I hope you have shaken the sad cough that was afflicting you when we were with you, and that Miss Helen is better of her chest troubles. The weather here has been fine and mild, and good to be out in. I am hoping for a decent sort of winter.

Sincerely yours

J. E. Calkins x
