December 7th, 1907

Dear Mr. Muir

It is a long time since I have had the pleasure of writing to you. Mr. Colby tells me that you are revising your Hetch Hetchy article for the Bulletin. And I write to ask when I may expect to receive it or will you send it direct to Mardock Press?

By the way, Mardock is moving down town and will be ready in a week; somewhere near Mission and Second Sts.

I hope that you are enjoying good health and also this welcome rain.

Your article in the Outlook was the most beautiful piece of description that I have ever read and gave me the greatest of pleasure, irrespective of the strong advocacy in the cause of letting ^{H-H's} it alone. Fortunately the utilitarians will have to make a strong showing to overcome your arguments.

With kind regards, very truly Yours

Elliott McAllister
