his Helen's sickness, asks me where to go, I tell him van Dykes

Martinez, Dec. 12, 1907

Dear Mr Lukens,

I think I told you that Helen had another attack of pneumonia about two months ago. She is slowly recovering & is able to go around the house but the rains & fogs of the last few days have made the weak lung sore & the doctors say as I do that she must go again to the desert & stay for two years, at some ranch where milk, eggs, vegetables etc can be had. Do you know of any such place - say about Barstow or Mohave or indeed anywhere. Perhaps Mr Gant in his extensive travels may have found such a place available for a merry though sick boarder & her anxious old father.

How are you all, well I hope. Have you seen the Sillers lately?

Sick or well I am faithfully yours

John Miner
