O I do hope the people will be able to save it from the water companies

Mr. Sperry joins me in Christmas greetings to you and Helen, and may the new year bring you every happiness and prosperity

Very sincerely yours

Helen Greame Sperry.

My dear Mr. Muir—

I just me thing and then another has come to prevent Mr.
Sperry and me from going see you and Helen.

and now I hear through Mr. Keller that you are going to Arizona again

Do you go at all or will we have a chance to go and ^{C23} see you the first of the new year.

I saw Marian on Saturday and she left that night for Los Angeles

She is very well now and much better ever since her illness last summer for which we are all most thankful.

Marian, Ellie and I had a delightful month at Tahoe as you know a very quiet time - spending our days in the pine woods while I told them of our fine mountain trip to Inclusive meadows, and the wonderful trip over Cathedral pass.

Mr. Sperry and I want more - we didn't ^{have} half enough and are planning to go again the middle of August for several weeks - and
