My dear Mr. Muir:

I know that I cannot sufficiently express my pleasure and pride in the book received on Christmas morning. So I shall not attempt to.
But believe that I appreciate your kindness.

I am seriously considering forming a 64000

"Surrea Club annex" being library, and in this annex my "National Parks" will bear the most honored place.

Looking forward to meeting
you again sometime, if not in Reno, in the mountains, and with greetings
from family, believe me

Sincerely and cordially yours,

Anna H. Martin.
Reno.

28 December 1901.
