My dear Mr. Miner:

The California goodies which you so kindly sent to contribute to the Merriam-Bailey supply of nutriment just mixed Christmas and thereby are continuing the good cheer into the winter. We have just offered the nuts + raisins and have divided with the Baileys - who are a few days before home.

How is Helen? Have been intending to write her since my return, but have been under great pressure of work here + also have had to go on 2 trips to New York + New Haven. We hope she is entirely recovered and as frolicsome as ever.

A short time after my return from California I showed the President the photographs of Hetch-Helby - yours + mine + some Colby gave me. He was much interested in them and asked for them to show to Earfield - all of which seems for the good.

Are you not coming our way
this winter?

Our love to you all and thanks
for the goodies -

Love

C. Hart Merriam -
