

1913-01-27

Letter from R. B. Marshall to John Muir, 1913 Jan 27.

R. B. Marshall

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Marshall, R. B., "Letter from R. B. Marshall to John Muir, 1913 Jan 27." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3898.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3898>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Washington D.C.
Jan'y 27/1913.

My dear Mr Muir

My ladie has writtten you I know - she can do such things for letters than I can - thanking you for our Christmas box - she can tell you in her charming way how we appreciated your kindness - But I want to talk for myself when it is John Muir under discussion - you know full well the undisputed place you hold in my heart and this simple note is only to add my gratefulness to that expressed by Mrs Marshall and the Darling babies -

I'll not nag you to come to our camp ground - you know we want you - Always want you - If you will come soon we will save you a nip of elegant California wine.

When you get tired thinking and writing to the world - just scratch of any thing you like and send it to the family whose hearts are full of love for their most prized friend.

Sincerely

R.A. Marshall