

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1913-02-04

Letter from Joanna [Muir Brown] to [John Muir], 1913 Feb 4.

Joanna Muir Brown

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Brown, Joanna Muir, "Letter from Joanna [Muir Brown] to [John Muir], 1913 Feb 4." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3907.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3907>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

C47

as you see we are all very busy indeed - Well I will try to write you again when I read the book, as will be now, I would give you a good kiss
 for it, if it were possible -

Affectionately
 Your sister Joanna

February fourth 1913 -

C17

Feb 4 1913
 2426 Floyd Ave
 Richmond Va

Dear Brother John:-
 Your beautiful
 book, "Yosemite," came yesterday and I hasten to thank you for it. I thought first that I would wait to read it, so I could express myself more intelligently, but I am so proud of it, I cannot wait to say how much I appreciate it. The artistic binding, and 05371

and your own inscription to me, make it all the more valuable,

The Winter is wearing away and we have had scarcely any cold weather, much less even than usual in Virginia, but I understand California has had unusual cold and frost, I rec'd a letter from a dear friend in San Diego this morning, telling how the frost had blighted vegetation there.

We are all continuing better in health than formerly, for which we are very grateful - Ethel and Bessie are in the same office, Ethel bookkeeping as usual and Bessie mistress of the stenography and type writing. Bernice and myself take charge of the house