Darling Helen, How are you all The days I hope are as fine as we are having here, warm with but little morning fog. All are well here, & the hills are green, the Vineyards yellow with mustard & the almond tree by the house is in bloom. I hope you are all flourishing How is your ranch Law suit?
Are you regainingⁱⁿ your lost flesh?
I am, We now have a better cook.

The book is taking far longer time to get into shape & so I'm unable to say when I'll get to see you & Mrs Thompson.

Write lots of short letters.
Kiss the lovely boys for me
Love to you all - devotedly
Your father
