

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1913-03-03

Letter from Fay H. Sellers to [John Muir], 1913 Mar 3.

Fay H. Sellers

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Sellers, Fay H., "Letter from Fay H. Sellers to [John Muir], 1913 Mar 3." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3924.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3924>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

not however remain much longer, having made her arrangements to return home in April. She is to visit her mother and daughter in Oregon before that time, consequently I will have to give her up soon. As I wrote you in my last letter, I will go to Chicago and decide later what is the best thing for me to do, live in a hotel, coming here winters or take a house there. I get very homesick when I think of

Pasadena Mch 3-13

Dear friend -

I am still in Pasadena where I expect to remain until there is a prospect of selling the house.

I have put it in the hands of Mr. Lockwood to sell, hoping he may find a purchaser soon - although one cannot always dispose of a house immediately upon offering it for sale.

My sister-in-law is still with me - She can -

c33

going away from Pasadena. For I like it there. No doubt when I go to Chicago, everything will be different there, and it may not seem like home. Five years has probably made many changes there too. I will let you know as soon as I know myself when I am going. It may be two months before I can dispose of my things here and be ready to go. If you come to Los Angeles, you will come to see me, won't you? I would be very unhappy to go away without seeing you again. God bless you dear Mr. Muir. For you have indeed been a dear and kind friend.

Your sincere friend
Jay H. Sellers.