My dear Mr. Muir,
We are so pleased
to have the magnificent photo of yourself and shall have it framed
at once.
My sister will be so pleased also to have one of them.
Her address is —

his attention is needed
on the eastern work.
It is six long years
since I have seen my Native state and that is entirely too long
too stay away.

I am planning to go by way of the Yellowstone and return by the Grand Cañon
— thus deriving all
the beauties possible
in one short summer.

I am anticipating a trip to California this summer with my two girls, but Bradford
feels he will not be able to go so far
west this year, as
