Mr John Muir
Martinez Cal.

Dear Mr Muir:

The copy of "The story of my Boyhood and youth" which you so kindly sent me was received today at Mr Knowland.

To say that I am delighted but mildly express it, sometimes when you are down this way I wish that you would autograph it, if not asking too much.

Assuring you of my appreciation of its remembrance, and wishing you continued good health.

Yours sincerely

P. G. Gates
