

1913-06-04

Letter from John Muir to [J. E.] Calkins, 1913 Jun 4.

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from John Muir to [J. E.] Calkins, 1913 Jun 4." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4010.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4010>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Martinez June 4, 1913-

Dear Mr Calkins:

Many thanks for your long kind letter. I often thought of you in your orange grove home & hoped the killing frost of last winter had hurt you but lightly as your place is so near the mountain foothills.

I wish our homes were fewer miles apart. All my notes - a huge pile are here - the gatherings of a life time, & it's hard to move, only six volumes published as yet out of material for more than a hundred.

I am now at work on my Alaska travels, and as soon as they are off my hands I mean to write another autobio volume.

With all good wishes for yourself & family I am ever faithfully yours
John Muir

09214