To J. W.
beginning. Set not the feet on graves Life is too short to waste In critic peep or cynic bark, Laurel or reprimand:
'Twill soon be dark;
Up! mind thine own aim, and God speed the Mark!

My dear Mr. ^{W.} ~~Murphy~~
The all want a visit from you - When may it be? As you say, Antients no time, separate true friends. See the mean time

Thank you for the books - reply - also - will you write me for me y- Milton's 'Gradation about Ocean, & the Invention.' 'Up! it will soon be dark - etc.' + by whom is it - I am writing all my loved sayings in a book & these I associate with you - all send love - and always
