Dear Miss:

Please return inclosed letters. My Times letter is having effect you see. I have other letters about it.

If you print anything more, let it be the plan of the park which you had on the old illustrated pamphlet, with a brief (1)(2)(3) résumé of the arguments on the back of it. I wonder if a postal card with the plan only & below it a statement: "H.H. Valley to be flooded. Two of three chief camping places withdrawn from public. Five hundred miles of the Nations' Great Park cut off from free access". I believe you would do well to make

Much of the camp-site consideration - the need of accommodations for the San Joaquin people.

There is no telegraph office here and I must telephone everything to New Bedford, and the weather today is blistering. But I must know if it is correct to say that the San Joaquin Valley people are against the scheme. Sullivan said so, but I await confirmation from you.

I am not only stirring up others but stirring them up to stir up others, &c.

My "Open Letter" of four pages I shall send through Sullivan to Congress sending others to the press.

Faithfully, mine, R. H. Johnson
