Dear Mrs. Blair,

I cannot tell you how much I appreciated seeing you in S. F. - and the memory of our little visit and delightful luncheon has lingered with us into these lovely woods - We are perpetually delighted with Wholads - The stage ride is very fine - there are lovely waterfalls to visit and nice trails awaiting us each day - Treats seem inexhaustible. The delightful party we found here is breaking up now I'm sorry to say several friends of Mrs. Hookers & Ellie - but Miss Roberts still remains.

The table is splendid and we long to have you here and fill out those cheeks - If the Parsons come home do turn over Hetch-Hetchy to them or Mr. Colby and come over for a trail for the sake of Auld Lang Syne!

Miss Heald is reaching in your Mountains of California and feels as though she was communing with your woods spirit every day

I am not so easily satisfied and should like the author in person - We shall remain until about the 14th, and then stop a few days at Pine Inn - Carmel, Donald leaves Aubrey today for New Brown creek - He has had fearful heat at Mothers - I'm glad I waited for a cooler season -

With warmest regards from your friends - in - the - woods
