August 9th, 1913.

Dear Mr. Muir,

Now that the Story of your boyhood and youth is published and finding its way into the hands of delighted readers, we are venturing to write and inquire your plans in regard to the publication of the next book in this series.
We should be glad if we could hope to have it for publication sometime in the course of 1914.

Faithfully yours,

John Muir, Esq.
