August 26th, 1913.

Dear Mr. Muir,

It is a pleasure to enclose herewith the copyright statement showing the sales of your books for the six months ending August 1st, together with our check for $140.87, leaving a balance due January 1st, 1914, of $838.20.

"The Story of My Boyhood and Youth" has made an excellent start, and we shall hope to see it show continued sales.

Believe us

Sincerely yours,

Houghton Mifflin Co.
