Martinez, Sep. 3, 1913.

Dear Johnson:

We all rejoice over the grand rousing work you are doing. We sent you check today for Lewy bill & The Sullivan $15.00 as we did not wish to be mixed financially with any party in interest.

We also sent you a few copies of 2^d letter. Send for more if you want them.

How many of these, thank you, of these should now be printed? We hope to get Club women to work very soon.

The battle signs begin to look favorable. On with the lance!

Ever admirably yours
John Muir
