Darling Helen, Your twin letters just received. You can't write too often but I don't want you to feel that you must write every day except when you are sick. & then only a word like this

"Am better". or "All goes well." Or "My bones are getting buried again in new frisky flesh" Or "my face is rosy once more like a desert mountain at sundown, & so are the faces of my boy angels." etc etc.

And once a week or even two weeks, a page or double page letter for which you need no model.

Ever Your devoted Father
John Muir
