

1913-10-25

Letter from Fannie P. Carter to John Muir, 1913 Oct 25.

Fannie P. Carter

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Carter, Fannie P., "Letter from Fannie P. Carter to John Muir, 1913 Oct 25." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4138.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4138>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

13585-8 Knapp St
Lombardtown
Phila. Pa.

11.26.1918.

Dear Friend,
John Muir.

We, my husband & I, have enjoyed reading the books that has been written & published of the California country, & they travels through them so much alone, except the presence of our Heavenly Father whose beautiful works there was passing through, & so much

05587

Appreciated, ⁽²⁾ have been I also read "Boyhood" & you & have wondered whether there was some other book between that, & the travels through California, for its stops too abruptly, we want to know more of thy life & of thy parents, & others of the family, who lived & toiled to make the home happy.
before you had to go forth into the busy world.

⁽³⁾ are such books
you give me the titles of those that has written, & I would appreciate it, & will be glad to read them.

Thy friend
Fannie P. Carter.