

1913-10-01

Letter from Anna R. Dickey to John Muir, [ca. 1913 Oct].

Anna R. Dickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Dickey, Anna R., "Letter from Anna R. Dickey to John Muir, [ca. 1913 Oct]." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4148.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4148>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

EN ROUTE
NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

Dear Mr Muir,

I am making a flying visit to Mother as I am sailing on the Adriatic on Saturday for Naples to be the guest of Mrs Fowler in Italy and Algiers - hoping to go on the desert - all of this is very sudden. I have declined two previous invitations but Thursday Donald came out of the New Brunswick with looking splendidly after his three vessel months

Mrs Dickson

05564

and he persuaded ^{us} me to accept and promising me to come over by New Year's if he can finish up his photo work & be released from a certain contract - I hoping I am doing right but it is a great temptation as I do not know when I could ever go otherwise.
I am so in hopes of making connections with the ~~Forbes~~ ^{Hookers} but have only their Paris banker's address and have written them there to forward - I get home sick twinges for the dear home and California. You must send a line sometime - My address is c/- Mrs E. M. Fowler. Bromthorpe St.
London, England.

I spent a week in Washington, had a nice little visit over the telephone with Mr Merriam - He was away until the last day - I so sincerely hope you are well and that the coming year may bring you every joy and comfort.

Ever sincerely your friend
Anna R. Dickey

Sunday.
An limited between Chicago & N.Y.