Martinez, Nov. 3, 1913

Dear Johnson I've been holding your grand telling circular for additional names expected from Parsons. Probably he has sent them to you direct. Drop him an appreciative word now & then He is working very hard, so is Mrs Parsons. Am sorry I shall not be able to join you this month in Chicago & N. Y. For reasons I shall explain when we visit saved H. H. ~~next~~ ^{summer} summer. Bude might be ~~able~~ ^{urged} to go we paying his expenses of course, Cobby can't go on account of his ^{law} business partners objections against his taking any open part in the fight. Though he is heartily with us in a quiet way & with Parsons & self furnishes most of needed money The Women's Clubs are being stirred in fine order. I'm at work on my circular. The battle looks well & we must win. Faithfully John M. BANCROFT
