Martinez, Nov 10, 1913

Dear Johnson,

Have telegraphed Osborn to get Gleason at Museum meeting with his lantern slides. Have also telegraphed Gleason who leaves Denver today that I would be responsible for the $50. cost of his lecture in N.Y.

All begins to look well for our side of fight. Women's Clubs getting bravely into action. Were found to win, enemy badly frightened.

Up & smite em!

Bade can't leave his college lecture course.

Ever faithfully Yours
my beloved unconquerable general

John Miner
