Wartime, Nov 10, 1913

Dear Mr Parsons - unconquerable old war horse. I'm hard at work on the circular. Have concluded to rewrite most of it, make it plainer & more strikingly telling and incorporate new material making it unnecessary to get out the later circular I had in mind

As soon as I get off the first draft I'll bring it down to you and we will go over it together, in final revision

In the meantime have all your envelopes addressed & stamped, & we will have the sheets flying in good time for effect when the battle is hottest.

Therefore don't have any more printed of the uncorrected copies.

Ever faithfully yours John Muir
