Martinez Nov. 1813

Dear Mr King:

I have received with many thanks your magnificent Hetch Hetchy photo= graphs, a very telling lot.

I wish you would send Nos. 945, 948, 949, 953, 954, 958, 962, 963, 964, to Mrs E. H. Harriman

1, East 69th Street
New York

And the same to Mrs Henry Fairfield Osborn, 850 Madison Avenue
New York City

with my compliments,
and of course charge
to me.

Where did you find that magnificent Sugar pine? The finest specimen I have ever seen in a photograph. How tall is it, and how large in diameter 4 feet from the ground?

We are having a hard fight for Hetch Hetchy but think we will win. Help all you can.
Ever faithfully yours, John Muir
