Dear Mr. Muir,

It is almost
 time to send you
 Christmas greetings.
 That I will defer
 the tie I can attach, a spray of Holly. We had our first flurry of snow today. It is a delight to have the true heraldic signs of the Christmas season. Shops, people & presents seem so

material world!

If you could know what joy your books brought to the little bride & her good Scotch groom you would indeed be happy too! The Mountain of California I send to your Froselia Oraper who is to be married on December 15th. He was delighted with your message & my thought. I said "dear Mr Lewis, he was quite the first most wonderful man on our Alaska Trip and it didn't take long for me to agree with the others! Good love & with prospects of a little visit in Florence before she sets sail again for Egypt. Yes, happy, are the wanderers!

How is your Hotel Hotel, really being protected now. Certainly much excitement has favor. Don't think of it too much for we want your gift - your books!

We devoted to hoping to hear soon again. Always faithfully Betty Arnold.
