Dear old friend. I have just arrived in Paradise and find that you have remembered me by a copy of "Your Boyhood" days. You dear dear John. You can't think how pleased I am.
to have the book.

and I spent last summer East and just returned by way of Chicó and Oakland.

Come and see your old time friend who thanks you so much for your remembrance.

With love and Christmas greetings from a sincere friend Emily D. Wilson

We shall so enjoy reading it. I am with Mrs. Knapp in her upstairs room and I hope you will find your way out
to see us as soon as you come south.

It is a long time
since you called here
and found us away
Grove bend to South America, and I don't know where since then
