

1913-01-01

Letter from Anna R. Dickey to John Muir, [1913].

Anna R. Dickey

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Dickey, Anna R., "Letter from Anna R. Dickey to John Muir, [1913]." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4207.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4207>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the John Muir Correspondence 1856-1914 at Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Dear Mr Muir - C13

Mrs Hooker arrived last night and can only remain down here until Wednesday. I had so hoped you could be here, if you find you can bring your work with you for a month, come at any time. Telephone me from Los Angeles and I will meet you at the car here with my little electric.

Mrs H - is minding up the old home down here. The place may be sold while she is abroad - It pulls one's heartstrings to have the dear old place go. I have had nice visits with Gora Gale the writer who lives in Portage and her Mother remembers all your family - they are sending you a Boyhood. How I wish you could be here by Tuesday.
Ever Cordially
Anita R. Dickey.